My Industrial School numbers seventy girls. I have distributed 17, 250 tracts, 500 cards, and 500 religious books. Several have professed conversion, two have united with the evangelical churches, and whole families turned from beggary and idleness, to industry, respectability and hope. Two. thirds of my scholars, in regular attendance, have hope that they love Jesus. --Homes for four children, and one adult, and employment for eleven persons have been obtained. The Gospel of love could be carried to every dark adode, and every heart be made to feel its power, if Christians would unite to do the...
