It descended to the present owner by marriage, and as in the hall of ancestry the portrait of the celebrated Tycho Brahe holds a first station in the line, so we suppose the present Count descended from that stock. He is at present possessor of the most complete old curiosity shop in Christendom, and it seems to be his hobby to collect all that is rare and curious of all times and ages. In the picture collections are to be found all the kings, from Odin down to Charles XIV. The latter is represented as Mars. It is by Beestrom, and stands in one 148 OLD CURIOSITY SHOP. of the four turrets; painted in fresco on the walls are his best achievements: and there are two pictures also of the battles of Halle and Lubeck, in which...
