Excerpt: . our views of influencing the public opinion on particular occasions, of which I shall give some instances in course of time as they happened. Y first promotion was my being chosen, in 1736, clerk of the J.VX General Assembly. The choice was made that year without opposition; but the year following, when I was again proposed, (the choice, like that of the members, being annual,) a new member made a long speech against me, in order to favor some other candidate. I was, however, chosen, which was the more agreeable to me as, besides the pay for the immediate service as clerk, the place gave me a better opportunity of keeping up an interest among the members, which secured to me the business of printing the votes, laws, paper money, and other occasional jobs for the public, that, on the whole, were...
