One Hundred Other Momentous Questions in History The plan pursued in this book is simple. One hundred and one decisive questions in history are on trial. The evidence presented on ninety-five of these questions is Bible and Secular, and on five Secular. The witnesses are from many walks of life. Historians, educators, ministers, statesmen, prophets, kings, slaves, editors, lawyers, reformers, business men, warriors, physicians, poets, artists have been summoned. In each case the reader is to be judge and jury. Among the valuable articles written especially for this book is one indeed unique. It is by Colonel John Sobieski, for long years heir to the throne of Poland, a man to whom this nation owes a large debt. Years ago, when the martyr's blood was shed on American soil for fighting the diabolical Drink Traffic, he dedicated his magnificent powers of leadership to the unpopular Prohibition Movement. Far out on the firing line this Pole, who had risked his life in the Civil War, battled for the freedom of American...
