Created Equal: Women Campaign for the Right to Vote 1840 - 1920

By Ann Rossi

National Geographic Society. Hardcover. Book Condition: New. Hardcover. 40 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 7.2in. x 0.5in. Created Equal begins with the early suffragist movement of the late 19th century, telling of the state of women's rights as they were at the time. The reader will learn about Elizabeth Cady Stanton, Lucretia Mott, and the other women of the Seneca Falls Convention. Having helped to start the suffragist movement, women such as Susan B. Anthony and Lucy Stone fought long and hard for the rights of women. Braving the turmoil of the Civil War era, these women formed organizations such as the American Equal Rights Association and helped to push for equal rights for not only themselves, but for African Americans as well. The turn-of-the-century saw a growth in the anti-suffragist movement, and new ladies appeared on the scene ready to fight hard for their beliefs. Alice Paul and her contemporaries reinvigorated the suffragist movement and spurred an organized political effort to win the vote. Through protests, parades, journalistic pieces, and even jail sentences, these women pushed the government to pass the 19th Amendment that would give women the right to vote. Their fight was difficult and long, but the suffragist movement...

This pdf will not be simple to start on reading through but extremely enjoyable to see. I have read and I also am sure that I will be planning to read through again once more in the foreseeable future. You won't really feel monotony at whenever you want of the time (that's what catalogues are for relating to if you request me).
