We thank Thee for the light of the Everlasting Gospel, which hath shined and still doth shine in this place; for those faithful Bishops, Priests and Doctors, to whose far sighted wisdom and Godly counsel, under the guidance of Thy Holy Spirit, this College owes its foundation. Help us to hold them ever in grateful remembrance, and grant them a place before Thy throne, where they may continue to serve Thee in the Heavenly Places. We thank Thee that Thou didst raise up devout and faithful laymen, to devote themselves and their means to the temporalities of this Institution, and we pray that Thou wilt grant them that reward which Thou hast promised to those who have been faithful stewards. And we beseech Thee to guide and prosper those upon whom is now laid the responsibility for the welfare of this College, and grant that all things may be so ordered and settled by their endeavours, upon the best and surest foundations, that peace and happiness, truth and justice.
