They get to do fun things together like play with Prissy the cat, color beautiful pictures for their grandma s delight, and take cookies to the neighbor, Grandma s best friend. But what happens when their visit takes a turn for the worst and Grandma s neighbor friend passes away? How can Grandma talk about this difficult issue of death with her young grandchildren? Alice Evans Craig shows how one grandmother uses an unexpected opportunity to share the joy believers have in their guarantee of eternal life in heaven, even after their life on earth has passed. I Believe is the perfect introduction to a conversation with your child about the hope we have for tomorrow. Don t miss this special occasion to ease your child s fears about death and share about God s exciting plan for the future.
