The Beta delegation was filled with sympathy for the entire delegation from Delta and sincerely trusts they reached home safely; and begs to assure them that provisions will be made at the 1915 convention whereby there will not devolve upon them such an enormous amount of committee work. It was very evident that the delegates from our youngest Chapter, Epsilon, were real fraternity men, thoroughly in harmony with the convention, and they created a very favorable impression. When they come to Colorado we trust that they will bring much of the juice that gave their town its name for it comes very high in Denver--so we have been informed. The Gamma Chapter outdid itself in hospitality and the Beta delegates, being first on the ground, are particularly indebted to them for the way in which they were entertained. Beta caused the Gamma members to desert their homes and neglect their business to see that a good time was had, and the delegation sincerely hopes that it will personally be given the privilege of reciprocating in 1915. The convention was brought to a close in the evening by one of the most delightful banquets imaginable which reflected the greatest credit upon our Gamma hosts. With the spirit of optimism so evident throughout the day and at the banquet and...
