Brand New Book  Print on Demand .The courtship journey is an exciting undertaking in which an opportunity is availed to a courting couple to understudy each other prior to a life long commitment in marriage. Using the first marriage of Adam and Eve as a model, the two learn the roles and terms of references as handed over by God, the author of marriage. How this foundation is cast has a direct bearing on the happiness of marriage. To trade marriage for worldly standards such as peer pressure, prestige, pride, desire for short term material benefits, fashion and public approval is a sure route to an unhappy marriage. God designed marriage for the companionship of man and woman. Genesis 2:18 says It is not good for man to be alone; I will make him a helper suitable for him. God, therefore, made a woman to correspond to man in order to be an associate, and a partner of equal dignity before God. God has equally designed marriage for the mutual help of husband and wife (Genesis 2:18). This is to complement each other physically, emotionally, and spiritually. Two are better than one; because they have a better reward for their labour (Ecclesiastes 4:9), the scriptures declare. God has also designed marriage for the purpose of Procreation (Genesis 1:27-28). Marriage is the right context to raise off-springs. Moreover, children are a gift from God and our timing and desires may not always be God s plan. Psalm 113:9, Psalm 127:3-5; Deuteronomy 7:13 and Deuteronomy 28:4 highlight this truth. Thus, barrenness, late arrival of children, number of children, and combinations of sexes of children will always be the prerogative of God almighty. Barrenness is heart breaking,...
