There was, so to speak, rottenness at the core, although outwardly imperceptible. Reader, may this fact teach us to look well to our foundation! Among the many sayings of our blessed Lord and Master was one about a wise man who built his house upon a rock; and, although the rain descended, and the floods came, and the winds blew, and beat upon that house, it fell not, for it was founded upon a rock; but He spake also of a foolish man, who built his house upon the sand; and the rain descended, and the floods came, and the winds blew, and beat upon that house, and it fell; and great was the fall of it. Again, our blessed Lord, after asking His disciples the allimportant question, Whom say ye that I am? in reply to Peter...
