S bilateral programs with the newly independent states of the former Soviet Union (FSU) between fiscal year (FY) 1990 and December 31, 1994, that were designed to help them make the transition to democracy, focusing on the: (1) amount of funds obligated and expended; (2) amount of credits provided, including subsidy costs; and (3) appropriation source and budget function for the funds. GAO found that: (1) from FY 1990 through December 31, 1994, U. S. departments and agencies obligated 5. 4 billion and expended 3. 5 billion for grant technical assistance, exchange programs, training, food and commodity donations, mutually beneficial science and technology projects, and support of joint space efforts; (2) the U. S. government also provided about 10 billion in credit for bilateral loans, loan guarantees, and insurance; (3) during this same period, 23 departments and independent agencies implemented 215 programs in the FSU; (4) the Agency for International Development, Department of Agriculture (USDA), and Department of Defense implemented the large majority of noncredit programs; (5) USDA also funded the largest portion of credit insurance...
