Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.To merely define faith as a simple belief or mere profession of the facts of truth is to no more describe the devil s knowledge and belief of the truthfulness of truth itself, yet himself being damned for eternity, having no love, enjoyment or treasuring of that truth. If faith does not include the spiritual enjoyment and joyful submission to the God of truth himself, then it s no better than dead and mere condemning knowledge. True faith, indeed saving faith, as it receives the truth of the person and work of Jesus Christ on their behalf with empty hands, leads to nothing less than the transformation of the heart, life, soul, and desires of the one who comes to know Christ and embrace God in Christ for all that he is. He is received as one s desperately needed Savior, Lord, God, reigning King and Treasure above all things. He is embraced and savored by faith as nothing less than one s all in all. And he must and he will be embraced as such by faith or otherwise one does not truly know him in a saving, indeed life- transforming way. Thus faith in all of its dimensions apprehends, trusts, and receives truth in such a way that it savors the beauty, goodness, and glory of the one truth itself points to-the God of truth himself.
